ON THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE CLIFFORD CLINTON FAIRES.

The Honorable Clifford C. Faires, a prominent judicial figure in Arizona, passed away in the City of Riverside, California, on March 6, 1967.

Clifford C. Faires was born on October 24, 1887 in Boonesville, Mississippi, and was a son of John W. and Sarah Lee Faires.

Judge Faires' interest in law was awakened by a Florida judge with whom he was living in 1899. After obtaining his Law Degree in 1909 from the University of Virginia, he came to Arizona and soon settled in Globe.

In 1917, Judge Faires closed his law office and volunteered for service in the United States Army, joining the Norfolk, Virginia Base Hospital Unit No. 1 which was being organized by the Alumni of the University of Virginia. He was assigned to St. Denis, France with Base Hospital Unit No. 41, and remained to serve through trying times when it appeared Paris would be taken.

After the close of his military service, Judge Faires returned to Globe. He served two terms as Assistant Gila County Attorney and as City Attorney before being appointed Superior Court Judge.

During his thirty years as a Judge, he served on the bench in every county of the State, and on several occasions was called on to serve as a replacement on the Arizona Supreme Court.

Judge Faires was the first President of the Arizona Judiciary Council, was a President of the State Bar Association during 1932 and 1933, and was Arizona's first representative on the National Executive Committee of the American Legion when it was founded in 1919. He was also a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Elks Lodge, Phi Delta Phi Law Fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon Social Fraternity, was an Honorary member of the Spanish War Veterans and the Rotary Club, and was for many years active in the Boy Scouts of America from which he had received the Silver Beaver Award.

Judge Faires was also interested in the political affairs of his adopted State. He was a member of the Third State Legislature where he served the people of his legislative district with diligence. Therefore

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the state of Arizona:

That the members of this House, having learned of the death of the Honorable Clifford Clinton Faires, wish to express their regret and extend their condolences to the surviving members of his family.
